

Cloudsplitter Board of Trustees and Staff

Board

Glenn Keet has worked in health care IT for over three decades, most recently as President of HealthLevel, Inc., a SaaS real-time analytics platform for health systems. Glenn has been a Board Trustee for Adirondack Health since January 2017. Mr. Keet graduated from Lehigh University in 1986 with a BS in Mechanical Engineering and a BA in Applied Sciences. In 2009 he attended Wharton's Executive Leadership training.

Ernest E. [Lee] Keet is a Saranac Lake-based private equity investor with over thirty years of high-tech investing experience. His not-for profit work has included board positions on the Adirondack Nature Conservancy, Adirondack Counsel, Adirondack Land Trust, AdkAction, and Point Positive. He holds two master's degrees in Engineering.

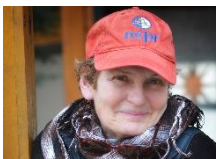

Nancy R. Keet has served as Chair of the Adirondack Foundation, on the Executive Committee of North Country Public Radio, and on the board of the Adirondack Experience, the museum in Blue Mountain Lake. She holds a BA and an MA in fine arts and resides in Saranac Lake

Jodi C. Keet serves as a board member of the Pendragon Theatre of Saranac Lake. A 25-year veteran of consumer-products marketing and display manufacturing, she holds a B.A in Fine Art and Media Communications and a M.A. in Media/. She loves the Adirondacks and resides in Weston, CT with her husband Scott and son Liam.

Melissa Eisinger is the recently retired VP of Adirondack Foundation. For twenty years prior, she was with the Adirondack Chapter of The Nature Conservancy and Adirondack Land Trust. Current and former board service includes the Northern Forest Atlas Foundation, the Bruce L. Crary Foundation, and High Peaks Education Foundation. She is a friendship volunteer for Mercy Care of the Adirondacks.

Ellen Rocco is the station manager at North Country Public Radio, where she has worked since 1980. She has served on the board of NPR and on panels for many media and community organizations, including those of CPB, NY Humanities Council, NYS Council on the Arts, and several Adirondack North Country groups. She has lived on a farm in St. Lawrence County since 1971.

Director

Chenelle Palyswiat is honored to hold her position as Director of Cloudsplitter Foundation. Chenelle is a native Saranac Laker whose heart belongs to the Adirondacks. She holds her degree in Interior Design and enjoys creating and finding beauty in her surroundings. Chenelle is passionate about educating and empowering others with natural solutions to live their happiest and healthiest lives. Above all, being a cool mom and dedicated wife are favorite priorities.
